

Everbridge to Host Preeminent Critical Event Management Conference, Resilience 2019

February 11, 2019

Resilience to be held March 11 - 13 in Orlando and Feature Keynote Presentations from The Dow Chemical Company and Valero Energy Corporation

BURLINGTON, Mass.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Feb. 11, 2019-- Everbridge, Inc. (NASDAQ: EVBG), the global leader in critical event management and enterprise safety software applications to help keep people safe and businesses running, today announced the agenda and featured speakers for its Resilience 2019 Critical Event Management Summit. This second annual event is custom designed for Everbridge customers and partners. The conference, which takes place March 11 – 13 at the B Resort & Spa in Lake Buena Vista, Florida, provides customers a forum to share best practices and challenges for ensuring life safety and operational resilience, and to discuss new innovations in critical event management.

Attendees at Resilience come from many of the world's most recognized brands and multi-national organizations. Presentations will include customer keynotes from Scott Whelchel, Chief Security Officer & Global Director Emergency Services & Security, The Dow Chemical Company, and William Wilkins, Executive Director, Global Security Operations, Valero Energy Corporation. These presentations will focus on optimizing security and continuity programs by aligning teams and processes, breaking intelligence siloes, and operationalizing technology such as the Everbridge Critical Event Management Suite to ensure ROI and organizational resiliency.

The conference will also feature speakers and panelists from global organizations such as Alexion Pharmaceuticals, Aon, Booz Allen Hamilton, CVS Health, Forrester Research, Northrop Grumman, Red Hat, Sanofi, Southern Glazers Wine & Spirits, and Walgreens, covering a range of topics including: strategies to make "business resiliency more proactive by better anticipating problems and taking actions to minimize disruptions" and "driving situational intelligence for life safety."

The event will be moderated by Everbridge's executive team and critical event management experts. Attendees will also have the chance to connect and gain insight from key Everbridge partners and co-sponsors including Alertus Technologies, Fusion Risk Management, ICI Innovations, International SOS and Johnson Controls. Conference sessions will focus on empowering attendees with the intelligence and connections needed to extend the value of their security programs, while driving a common operating picture of risk across business operations.

"Resilience will gather a number of today's most forward-thinking leaders who are focused on minimizing the threats to personal safety and the disruption to business operations from critical events," said Joel Rosen, CMO, Everbridge. "It's a spectacular venue to compare notes, exchange ideas, and discuss new technology that brings more situational intelligence and automation to the critical event management process."
